
Nostalgia

CARBONDALE CITY HALL AND MEMORIAL PARK were easily seen from the east end of the park (near St. Rose Church) in the early 1900's. Notice the size of the trees, and the building at the right of the statue which later became the M&M Bank building. Also, note that when this picture was taken (around 1918) there was no clock in the city hall tower.